

CHARTER 2017-2018

Preamble

WE, AS CONSCIENTIOUS STUDENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA, DESIRING TO PROMOTE THE FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES AND IDEAS SET FORTH IN THE CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS THROUGH ACTIVE EDUCATION OF OURSELVES AND OUR COMMUNITY, DO ORDAIN AND ESTABLISH THIS ORGANIZATION FOR THE PURPOSE OF ACCOMPLISHING THESE AIMS. ACCORDINGLY, WE PRESENT THIS CHARTER AS AN INSTRUMENT OF OUR DETERMINATION TO ACHIEVE A BETTER WORLD.

Article I

Name, Purpose and Membership

Section 1

The name of this organization shall be the Arizona Model United Nations (AZMUN), and it shall function as a volunteer organization controlled by the students of the University of Arizona.

Section 2

The purpose of the organization shall be:

- a. To promote an understanding of the principles of the United Nations through education and the promotion of its goals at the University of Arizona;
- b. To promote a general awareness in the community of the United Nations and its activities, especially by providing the opportunity for high schools students to simulate the activities of the United Nations;
- c. To strive for the improvement of the community, in keeping with the ideals of the United Nations, through volunteer efforts; and
- d. To facilitate binational dialogue and cooperation.

Section 3

An invitation for membership is extended to any interested student at the University of Arizona who agrees to actively participate in the organization's efforts to accomplish its aims. Membership shall only be limited in the respect that the conduct of an individual is in a nature inconsistent with the goals of the organization.

- a. A member who fails to meet these requirements may be removed from the organization by a 2/3 (two-thirds) vote of the Executive Committee.

Article II

Financial Obligations

Section 1

A majority of active members of this organization may determine reasonable dues and fees assessed to each member at the beginning of each semester. Upon payment of dues, individuals are automatically considered as active members of the Secretariat of the Arizona Model United Nations and receive all the rights, privileges, and responsibilities appertaining thereto. Dues will be designated by each years' Executive Committee prior to the first general member meeting.

Section 2

The Executive Committee is responsible for payment in full of all debts accumulated by the organization not covered by funds on deposit.

1. A detailed record of money spent shall be kept by both the Faculty Advisor and the organization and shall be available for inspection upon request by any active club member;
2. The Secretary-General shall answer the requests by any active club member in a timely manner;
3. The Faculty Advisor shall entertain other requests by non-active members or other parties.

Section 3

Money collected from members for dues and fees will be used for purposes related to club activities and functioning, including costs related to attending conferences, as determined by the Executive Committee.

Article III

Club/Conference Staff Members

Section 1

The club/conference staff shall consist of all student members who are not found to be delinquent in their dues payments (identical to active club members as mentioned in this Charter).

Section 2

Duties of the club/conference staff shall consist of:

1. Attendance of regularly scheduled AZMUN meetings and functions;
2. The fulfillment of contractual agreements when attending a collegiate Model United Nations event;
and
3. Other responsibilities outlined within this Charter.

Article IV

Executive Committee

Section 1

The officials comprising the Executive Committee of this organization shall be: the Secretary-General; Under-Secretaries-General of Conference Coordination; Under-Secretary-General of Domestic High School Coordination; Under-Secretary-General of International High School Coordination; Under-Secretary-General of Rules and Procedures; Under-Secretary-General of Finance; Under-Secretary-General of Domestic Training; Under-Secretary-General Travel Coordination; Under-Secretary-General of Translation and Interpretation; Under-Secretaries-General of Economic Development; Under-Secretary-General of Media and Technology; Under-Secretary-General of Internal Affairs; and will henceforth comprise the body known as the Executive Committee. At the end of each year the current Executive Committee can add or remove positions to be included in the following year's Executive Committee through the amendment process.

Section 2

Executive Committee members are elected for a term of one academic year, unless otherwise specified. Executive Committee members must be full-time students in residence at the University of Arizona, unless otherwise specified. In the event that a position becomes available before the period of regular elections, new members will be appointed by the Executive Committee in accordance with the process outlined in Section 3, below, and shall serve out the remainder of the current term. Furthermore, all Executive Committee members shall write a comprehensive transition guide that lays out the responsibilities of the position and possible areas of improvement.

Section 3

Under-Secretaries-Generals shall be selected immediately following the finalization of the Arizona Model United Nations Annual High School Conference:

1. Candidates must submit an application in writing to the Secretary-General;
2. From submitted applications, and all other processes deemed necessary, the Executive Committee will fill all positions available;
3. Upon selection, Under-Secretaries-General-Elect will be granted the right to speak and vote at Executive Committee meetings for the remainder of the academic year, subject to the discretion of the Secretary-General;
4. In extraordinary circumstances, a temporary Executive Committee member may be selected by 2/3 (two-thirds) vote of the current Executive Committee members.

Section 4

Secretary-General Line of Succession

1. In the case of the Secretary-General's inability to exercise the duties of their office, the member of the Executive Committee with the highest seniority in time spent on the Executive Committee will assume the position of Secretary-General pro tempore until a new Secretary-General can be selected. When several members of the Executive Committee have the same level of seniority, the duties of the Secretary-General will be assumed by the person highest on the list aforementioned in Article IV, Section 1, listed above.
2. The permanent Secretary-General shall be selected by a ballot by the Executive Committee. The person, who should be a current member of the Executive Committee, will serve out the remainder of the term.

Section 5

The members and duties of the member on both the Travel and Conference Secretariat shall consist of

I. The duties of the Secretary-General shall consist of:

1. Carrying out the provisions of this Charter and oversee the administration of the daily functions of the organization;
2. Serving as the official spokesperson for Arizona Model United Nations;
3. Serving as the facilitator of the general Arizona Model United Nations meetings;
4. Serving as the Chairperson of the both the Travel Secretariat and the Conference Secretariat and prepare the both the Travel Secretariat and the Conference Secretariat;
5. Fulfilling responsibilities associated with their status as board member of the UN Association of Southern Arizona;
6. Performing as the Chief Administrative Officer of the association overseeing the performance of the Executive committee;
7. Terminating, with the approval of a majority of the Executive Committee, an appointed officer;
8. Being responsible for all room needs for activities of the organization;
9. Conduct performance reviews for each executive committee position at least once (1) per term;
10. Responsible for maintaining the organization's Google Apps account;
11. Performing other duties as pertain to the office to include the making of policies not in conflict with this Charter or with any other Campus Regulations (Articles IX, Section 1), with such duties under review by the Executive Committee.

II. The duties of the Under-Secretary-General of Rules and Procedures shall consist of:

1. Serving as Chief Parliamentarian of the organization;
2. Proposing, revising and making needed changes to the Arizona Model United Nations high school conference Rules and Procedures;
3. Taking responsibility for the training of participants representing the University of Arizona and Arizona Model United Nations at collegiate Model United Nations functions as well as the training of Committee/Council staff for the high school conference;

- a. Plans the fall training curriculum with the USG of Domestic Training to have lessons geared toward both new and returning members;
4. Recommends to the Executive Committee and Secretary General possible conferences to attend in the fall and spring semester;
5. Coordinates Political Science 202 review sessions.
6. Manages country assignment, and position papers for outside conferences while coordinating with the USG of Travel Coordination for registration;
7. Is an official member of the teaching team.
- III. The duties of the Under-Secretary-General of Domestic Training shall consist of:
  1. Coordinating all training projects with domestic high school Model United Nations programs;
  2. Creating material to be distributed to help domestic high school Model United Nations programs;
  3. Works directly with the USG of Rules and Procedure in training the staff and club members;
    - a. Manages the weekend alternative meetings of rules instructions;
    - b. Discusses with the USG of Rules and Procedure the division of labor (roughly equal) for position papers, oral finals, and other pre-conference assessments;
  4. Coordinating school visits and regional conferences for the purpose of strengthening high school Model United Nations programs;
  5. In the event of a chair not being able to fulfill their duties, shall function as a Chair-at-large during the AZMUN conference;
  6. Edits the preliminary research guides written by the USG of Domestic Coordination;
  7. Edits the Chair Welcome Letters in coordination for USG of Media and Technology;
  8. Is an official member of the teaching team.
- IV. The duties of the Under-Secretary-General of Finance shall consist of:
  1. Advises the Economic Development Team on fundraising plans at the beginning of each semester for meeting the budget demands of the organization;
  2. Oversees all fundraising activities of the organization;
  3. Working to write and secure grants for general funding of the club;
  4. Keeping all records of financial transactions of Arizona Model United Nations;
  5. Coordinating all invoices;
  6. Giving weekly reports to the Executive Committee and periodic reports to the general club secretariat regarding the organization's budget;
  7. Reconciling Arizona Model United Nations financial records against those of the club advisor and the online banking records on a regular basis;
  8. Proposing in coordination with the Secretary-General a new budget to be approved by the Executive Committee at the beginning of each semester;
  9. Preserving the 501(c)(3) not-for-profit status of the organization;
    - a. In the event of a loss of 501(c)(3) status it the responsibility of this member to file the appropriate paperwork and regain the not-for-profit status with the guidance of the Secretary General.
- V. The duties of the Under-Secretary-General of Internal Affairs shall consist of:
  1. Communicating club activities and announcements, including through weekly emails;
  2. Coordinating all social and philanthropic events for the organization and its members;
    - a. Specifically the conference philanthropy;
  3. Preparing and posting minutes of the organization's meetings in a timely manner;
  4. Helping the Secretary-General with administrative tasks and with holding other Executive Committee members accountable;
  5. Ensuring the safety of the organization's members during off-campus activities;
  6. Being responsible for the archiving and preservation of all Arizona Model United Nations documents;
  7. Being responsible for reconnecting with alumni and maintaining those connections;
  8. Coordinating the alumni network with newsletters, updates and events; specifically organizing at least one event to take place during homecoming week;
  9. Coordinates with the USG of Conference Coordination for various conference staff logistics including:

- a. Announces and informs all staff members of their responsibilities and expectations before and during the conference;
- b. Responsible for taking attendance and ensuring that all members are completing their assigned tasks.

Section 6

The members and duties of the Traveling Secretariat shall consist of:

- I. The duties of the Under-Secretary General of Travel Coordination:
  1. Coordinates the reservation of hotel rooms for all college competition conferences;
  2. Handles the creation and coordination of flight groups, including the assigning of a flight leader;
  3. Manages the booking of any other competitive conference related essentials as laid out in the transition guide;
  4. Is the chief internal coordinator for conference which includes the responsibilities of room assignments, travel preparations, travel schedules, and various reservations;
  5. Works directly with the USG of Rules and Procedures to assign countries and register for the multiple conferences.
- II. The duties of the Under-Secretaries General of Economic Development shall consist of:
  1. Coordinating all fundraising activities of the organization;
    - a. Including the writing of new fundraising contracts for the fall and spring conferences that are dependent on the respective conference's costs;
  2. Working to write and secure grants for general funding of the club;
  3. Assisting the USG of Finance in developing and tracking the fundraising plans each year;
  4. Preserving the 501(c)(3) not-for-profit status of the organization;
    - a. In the event of the loss of 501(c)(3) status, it is the responsibility of these members to coordinate with USG of Finance to complete the paperwork and refile for non-profit status as soon as possible;
  5. Applying for and managing the Arizona Model United Nations Spring Fling booth.
  6. Assisting with the sale of merchandise to both members of the club and students attending the spring high school conference;
  7. Seeking out and maintaining relationships and sponsorships with appropriate businesses and professional organizations.

Section 7

The members and duties of the Conference Secretariat shall consist of:

- I. The duties of the Under Secretary General of Conference Coordination shall consist of:
  1. Coordinating the reservation of rooms;
  2. Manages the capacities for conference;
  3. Organizes the schedule for conference;
  4. Creates the standard operating procedures for all conference related activities;
  5. Charged with supply acquisition for the conference;
  6. Coordinates directly with USG of Domestic High School Coordination to print and organize placards, credentials, staff directory, and binder information;
  7. Manages the event planning details for the conference;
  8. Organizes the room layouts and setups required for the various committees;
  9. Secures and organizes all conference related invoices in conjunction with the USG of Finance;

10. Organizes the security for all conference related events;
  11. Responsible for teaching of the Conference Services staff:
    - a. Crafts lesson plans to teach about the duties of rapporteurs, and resolution processors;
    - b. Assists the USG of Domestic Training and Rules and Procedures to teach the dais staff in resolution training;
    - c. Organizes and prints all awards for the AZMUN conference.
  12. Tasked with planning the International Welcome Picnic'
- II. The duties of the Under-Secretary-General of Domestic High School Coordination shall consist of:
1. Serving as chief liaison to participating American high schools in annual high school conference;
  2. Overseeing country request process and assigning positions;
    - a. Oversees the process of committee creation and logistics;
  3. Creating and dispersing registration packets;
  4. Reserving hotel rooms for domestic high schools;
  5. Oversees the creation and editing of the conference background guides and student position papers, and the printing and organizing of staff and student credentials and placards;
    - a. Writes and coordinates the editing and translation of preliminary research guides with the USG of Training and Translation;
  6. Works directly with the USG of Domestic Training to coordinate high school trainings;
  7. Working with the USG of International High School Coordination;
    - a. Distributing county assignments between the Domestic and International Schools;
    - b. Continue with the communication throughout the year.
  8. Is an official member of the teaching team.
- III. The duties of the Under-Secretary-General of International High School Coordination shall consist of:
1. Working with the USG of Domestic Coordination;
    - a. Distributing county assignments between the Domestic and International Schools;
    - b. Continue with the communication throughout the year.
  2. Serving as Chief Liaison to Comité Mexicano AzMUN for the annual high school conference;
    - a. The "Comité Mexicano AZMUN" will be the official participating delegation in the Arizona Model United Nations Conference. The Executive Committee of Model United Nations will elect one or two advisors who will represent the "Comité Mexicano AZMUN" under the following requirements:
      - i. The advisors shall have the official title, "Mexican Advisors;"
      - ii. At the beginning of each school year, the Under-Secretary-General of International High School Coordination will issue a formal letter to all advisors in the state of Sonora and Chihuahua notifying them who will be the official coordinators, topics, and countries available for Comité Mexicano for that year.
  3. Coordinating all Arizona Model United Nations activities in Mexico;
    - a. Coordinating with AZMUN club members to attend training in Mexico including:
      - i. Coordinating transportation for members;
      - ii. Coordinating housing for members;
      - iii. Creating a schedule for members.
    - b. Coordinating with USG of Finance;
      - i. Budgeting out the cost for each training.
    - c. Prepares AZMUN club members with rules and procedures in English and Spanish;
      - i. Providing them with necessary training material after coordinating with the USG of Rules and Procedures;
      - ii. Have a meeting with AZMUN members before Mexico trainings;
    - d. Coordinates logistics with Coordinator for Mexico.
  4. Training the Spanish-speaking members of the dias staff for the annual high school Model United Nations conference;
    - a. Creating a syllabus;
    - b. Creating a curriculum including the following:
      - i. Training materials;

- ii. Exams;
    - c. Helping AZMUN club members with Spanish material and language.
  - 5. Promotes AZMUN in the Spanish speaking community at the University of Arizona;
    - a. Talking to heads of Spanish-Portuguese Department for recruitment purposes;
    - b. Working with IPD to develop Spanish-ordinated promotional materials;
  - 6. Is an official member of the teaching team.
- IV. The duties of the Under-Secretary-General of Translation and Interpretation shall consist of:
  - 1. Recruiting fluent Spanish speakers to our organization by speaking to and visiting Hispanic/Latino/Chicano Student Organizations and classrooms on the University of Arizona campus;
  - 2. Assist the USG of International High School Coordination in the training and preparation of delegates and Spanish-speaking staff:
    - a. This includes attending and all training regional in Mexico except for in circumstances deemed extraordinary at the discretion of the Secretary-General;
    - b. This includes teaching, educating, and preparing Spanish-speaking non-dias staff for our high school conference;
      - i. Will assist the teaching team: Directors of Crisis, IPD; in proofreading and coordinating assignments for Spanish-speaking members in those sections;
  - 3. Enlisting enough translators and interpreters to staff our high school conference;
  - 4. Being responsible for the obtainment, supervision, and support of the translation and interpretation equipment deployed at our high school conference;
  - 5. Consult with the USG International High School Coordination and other Spanish-speakers to translate internal documents;
  - 6. Maintains a staff of at least three club members to check out and manage equipment;
  - 7. Functions as a Interpreter and Chair-at-large during AZMUN conference.
- V. The duties of the Under-Secretary-General of Media and Technology shall consist of:
  - 1. Coordinating all Arizona Model United Nations publicity, branding, and media efforts;
  - 2. Maintaining and expanding the brand of Arizona Model United Nations;
  - 3. Maintaining responsibility for the domain and overall design of our website, social media and other marketing tools.

Article V

Non-Executive Committee Teaching Team

Section 1

The teaching team shall be comprised of Director of Crisis Coordination and the Director of the International Press Delegation. The preceding Directors will be selected by the a simple majority of the Executive Committee, before the end of the preceding fall semester. Furthermore, members of the Non-Executive Committee Teaching Team shall write a comprehensive transition guide detailing the responsibilities of the role and possible areas of improvements.

- I. The Director of Crisis Coordinator shall be responsible for:
  - 1. Teaching the crisis coordinators the various skills required to run a crisis;
  - 2. Advising the plans of conference coordinators as they prepare for the conference;
  - 3. Teaching guest speakers how to properly research and deliver a speech during conference.
  - 4. Instructing members on how to execute Home Government during conference
- II. The duties of the Director of the International Press Delegation shall consist of:
  - 1. Creating semester curriculum to ensure the members of IPD are proficient in their positions;
  - 2. Overseeing social media and publishing documentation of the conference.

Article VI

Election of the Secretary-General

Section 1

The nomination of the Secretary-General shall proceed as follows:

1. Qualified applicants for the position of Secretary-General shall submit in writing an intention to seek the office of Secretary-General to the current Secretary-General;
2. Six weeks before the opening of the high school conference the current Secretary-General shall invite all applicants to the Executive Committee in order to give a speech and answer questions from the Executive Committee. Three-fourths of the Executive Committee must be present;
3. The Executive Committee shall set the date of the confirmation debate and vote before the secretariat;
4. On the occasion that more than two candidates run for the position of Secretary-General, a primary and general election will be held, with the general election limited to no more than two candidates.

Section 2

The confirmation of the Secretary-General shall proceed as follows:

1. Three weeks before the opening of the high school conference, the Executive Committee shall vote to select the Secretary-General-Elect;
2. Nominees will be permitted to give a short speech in front of the entire secretariat;
3. Executive Committee members will be permitted to ask questions to the nominees before confirmation;
4. A Nominee must receive at least a majority of the votes of Executive Committee members present in order to be confirmed. Three-fourths of active Executive Committee members must be present for the vote;
5. If no nominees receive the majority required for confirmation, a run-off vote will be held between the two nominees who received the highest amount of votes. The nominee that receives a majority during the run-off vote will be confirmed as the Secretary-General-Elect.

Section 3

Approval of the Secretary-General Elect by the Political Science Department:

1. The Confirmed Secretary-General Elect must be submitted to the club advisor in order to be approved by the Political Science Department of the University of Arizona;
2. If the nominee does not receive approval of the Political Science Department of the University of Arizona, the issue is returned to the Executive Committee to re-open the nomination process.

Article VII Statement of Exempt Purpose

Section 1

Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article VIII Statement of Dissolution

Section 1

Upon the dissolution of this organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.

Article IX Statement of Non-Discrimination

Section 1

The organization shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, ethnicity, national origin, age, gender, disability or handicap, religion, sexual orientation, disabled veteran's status or Vietnam era veteran's status in any of its policies, procedures, and practices. This policy will include, but is not limited to, recruiting, membership, organization activities or opportunity to hold office.

Article X Statement of Non-Hazing

Section 1

This organization will not conspire to engage in hazing, participate in hazing, or commit any act that causes or is likely to cause bodily danger, physical harm, or personal degradation or disgrace resulting in physical or mental harm to any fellow student or person attending the institution.

Article XI Statement of Compliance with Campus Regulations

Section 1

This organization shall comply with all University and campus policies and regulations and local, state, and federal laws.

Article XII Amendatory System and Provisions

Section 1

Amendments shall be designated as those items that directly affect either the intent or scope of those articles within the main body of this Charter.

1. Any part of the Charter may be amended so long as it is not deemed contradictory to the goals of the organization as specified in Article I, Section 2;
2. The Secretariat may propose amendments to the Executive Committee with the signatories of a minimum of 25% of active members. Representatives of the amendment from the Secretariat must be present during the consideration of the amendment of the Executive Committee.
  - a. The Executive Committee must inform the Secretariat at least one week before a Charter meeting and explain this process by which Secretariat members may propose amendments.
3. The Executive Committee may propose and ratify amendments upon approval by a 2/3 (two-thirds) majority of its voting membership.

Section 2

A code shall be designated, as an area of activity deemed necessary to perpetuate and comply with the purposes of this Charter. It shall contain only ratified statutes.

1. All Codes shall be separate from, but subordinate to, this Charter;
2. The establishment or amendment of a Code is subject to the approval of a simple majority of the Executive Committee.

Section 3

A statute shall be that specific regulation or function deemed necessary to expedite and perpetuate the purposes and function contained within the Charter and included within the scope of a Code title.

1. No statute may be in conflict with an article or section of this Charter;
2. No statute may violate this Charter or a superior Code;
3. A statute may be enacted or amended by the approval of a simple majority of the total voting membership of the Executive Committee;
4. All Statutes shall be binding upon the entire membership of the Arizona Model United Nations;
5. Proposed statutes shall be voided by a petition signed by a simple majority of the active membership of Arizona Model United Nations.

Arizona Model United Nations
BY LAWS

Section 1

I. Executive Committee Meetings:

1. Travel Secretariat

- a. The Travel Secretariat shall meet on a weekly basis during the fall semester for the purpose of organizing club activities, specifically the preparation to send delegates to collegiate conferences;
- b. Travel Secretariat meetings will, unless otherwise arranged, be held every Sunday in the fall semester with a quorum to conduct business being 2/3rds of Travel Secretariat members;
- c. These meetings shall produce a summary of affairs discussed and voted upon to be shared with Conference Secretariat;
- d. Should an issue arise that pertains to the Conference Secretariat in the fall semester a joint meeting can be called for by the Secretary General;
- e. The Travel Secretariat in the spring semester shall be available to attend a monthly joint meeting as called upon by the Secretary General

2. Conference Secretariat

- a. The Conference Secretariat shall meet on a weekly basis during the spring semester for the purpose of organizing club activities, specifically the preparation of AZMUN staff for the conference;
- b. Conference Secretariat meetings will, unless otherwise arranged, be held every Sunday in the spring semester with a quorum to conduct business being 2/3rds of Conference Secretariat members;
- c. These meetings shall produce a summary of affairs discussed and voted upon to be shared with Conference Secretariat;
- d. Should an issue arise that pertains to the Travel Secretariat in the spring semester a joint meeting can be called for by the Secretary General;
- e. The Conference Secretariat in the fall semester shall be available to attend a monthly joint meeting as called upon by the Secretary General.

II. General Club Meeting

- a. Weekly meetings open to all active AZMUN members, and interested faculty;
- b. Membership is open to all students regardless of major;
- c. The meetings are to be organized and controlled by Executive Committee members;
- d. Unless otherwise arranged, club meetings will be held every Tuesday during the fall semester of the University of Arizona's Academic Calendar and every Tuesday and Thursday during the spring semester of the University of Arizona's Academic Calendar.

III. Participation at Collegiate Model United Nations Conferences

- a. At the discretion of the Secretary General and USG of Rules and Procedures, the club will attend

- multiple collegiate conferences during each academic year;
  - b. The primary activities at general club meetings during the fall semester will be related to the preparation for participation at fall conferences. The Executive Committee holds the right to specify a number of hours of attendance at Saturday trainings that will be required for persons wishing to participate in a given fall conference;
  - c. Club members wishing to attend Model United Nations conferences are expected to participate in fundraising activities as specified by the USGs of Economic Development. If AZMUN is funding club members participation in fundraising activities from the club members wishing to participate in the conference and impose fines on persons who do not fulfill requirements;
  - d. The Secretary General and USG Rules and Procedures will make decisions regarding country and committee selection for the club members attending conferences. The Executive Committee will also hold the right to disallow members from attending a conference if they have not met specified requirements for preparation and training or if their conduct is of a nature that is inconsistent with the goals of this organization;
    - i. A vote to disavow a member shall require 2/3rds of the joint Executive Committee;
- III. Annual Arizona Model United Nations High School Conference
- a. Every spring the club will host the Annual Arizona Model United Nations Conference on the University of Arizona campus;
  - b. The Executive Committee may specify requirements for club members wishing to participate in the conference as a staff member and holds the right of decision regarding staff positions.